

Airlines: A major commercial aviation company which charges people for self and/or goods transportations. Each airline is given a number and each has a name.

Flights: A detailed description of the flights that each Airline administers.

Flight Schedule: The schedule for each flight that specifies more about the departure/arrival location/time.

Passenger: A person wanting to go from one point to another who is on one and only one flight and one and only one airline.